

Greetings and Welcome to TwisterCon 16 March 2018

Jeff, Jeff, John and Mary, for better or worse, are your staff for this show. We are proud to present the 15th Annual TwisterCon Gaming Convention in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma!

Theme – The World at War

There are many instances in War when opposing Countries armies fight on multiple Continents. The two World Wars of the 20th Century certainly fit this description. However the conquests/actions of Alexander, Xerxes, Cortes, Napoleon, Imperial Great Britain, Al-Qaida, plus the US and UN peacekeepers might also be termed as World Wars too. These Generals marched, sailed, and later flew to faraway lands to wage War. These are but just a few examples.

Oh, to heck with that lofty stuff! I just like to see all by buds, have a beer, and see if my dice are hotter this time. LOL

Thanks to Jonathan Keepers, and Jeff Hunt for direct help with this effort. Thanks to my GameMasters whose games make it possible and fun. And big thanks to our Merchants who supply the toys.

Have fun, and remember the referee is ALWAYS right.

Jeff Lawrence

To4all attendees: Have a great time at our convention and we hope to see you again next year.

To ensure everyone has a good and safe time while at the convention, some rules need to be laid out and followed.

No Solicitation: There will be no unauthorized flea markets, nor will there be any selling in the public areas of the hotel. All selling of products or services is restricted to the dealer's AREA. Selling of retail goods must be done as a vendor by purchasing a table in our vendor area. Individuals wishing to sell their non-retail items may do so reserving a flea market table for Saturday evening.

As the Reed Center is also a Sheraton property, we have agreed to not compete with their restaurant and bar. The low entry fee and no charge for Game referees is a reflection of the hall discount we receive because of this policy. Please refrain from ordering Pizza delivered, or bringing in large quantities of food to consume on premises. We are providing pretty much non-stop coffee and water set-ups; however, you can still carry in your Big-Gulp with no problem. See Mary at registration for local dining/drinking options, and there are MANY to choose from.

GameMasters have the final say in their games or tournaments. The convention organizers will not involve themselves in rule disputes. However, game referees are required to treat all participants with respect, courtesy, and fairness.

Participants are expected to be courteous and respectful to other gamers, game masters and the convention staff. If you object to something that occurs within a game you are playing in, please state your case succinctly and let the game referee issue a ruling. Then live by it. And remember that younger gamers (and their parents) will be present, so please have a care what you say and do around them.

Convention Badges must be worn by all convention participants on the convention floor at ALL TIMES. No exceptions. TwisterCon staff, GameMasters, and Game Participants are included.

No Smoking is allowed in the convention area, lobby, or hallways of the hotel.

No uniforms allowed during TwisterCon, except for active-duty military personnel and on-duty law enforcement officers. Hats and costumes ARE allowed. However, Convention Staff reserves the right to request the removal of any apparel deemed offensive.

No weapons allowed except for law-enforcement and security personnel.

Prizes and Awards will be distributed by (some) GameMasters in a fair and impartial manner. In tournaments, the criteria for distributing prizes and awards will be explained before the event begins. In demonstration games, the GameMasters may award prizes randomly, or based by some objective criteria (such as the best display of tactics, worst die rolls, etc.) GameMasters should NOT keep any prizes or awards for themselves. However, the convention staff may distribute special prizes or awards to game hosts based on subjective criteria.

STAFF:

Jeff Lawrence, Jeff Massey, Jeff Hunt, Jonathan Keepers, and Mary Keepers.

Title: Return to Rick's Place
GM: Jeff Lawrence
Type: Miniatures
Description: In the early years of World War II, December 1941, the Moroccan coastal city of Casablanca attracts people from all over the world, particularly Nazi-occupied Europe. Many are transients trying to get out of Europe; a few are just trying to make a buck. Most of them -- gamblers and refugees, Nazis, resistance fighters, and plain old crooks -- find their way to Rick's Café American, a swank nightclub owned by American expatriate Rick Blaine. Though we learn later that Rick once harbored enough idealism to put himself at risk to fight fascism, he's now embittered and cynical, professing to be neutral and detached: "I stick my neck out for nobody." Well he did stick his neck out by killing a German officer to aid a Czech freedom fighter's escape to Spain. The Gestapo is on the way to Rick's Place with most of the Moroccan police who WERE under the command of Captain Louis Renault (Rick's accomplice). It's 3am and the bar is closed, but being the good host Rick has allowed a few patrons to stay for one last call.

Title: Ambush at Bushman's Pass
GM: Calvin Kinzer
Type: Miniatures
Description: As he rode along the narrow track leading into Bushman's Pass, Lord Chelmsford thought to himself, "This would be a perfect place in which to catch a Zulu impi and destroy it." He briefly considered stopping there and waiting for the enemy to appear. But, looking back at the slowly-moving column of supply wagons, escorted by red-coated infantry laboriously trudging along in the hot, South African sun, he decided against it and resolved to push on to his goal, the relief of the siege of Eshowe. Unfortunately, the Zulus had other plans, and had also realized the advantages of attacking while their enemy was in the choke point of the narrow, rocky pass. The result is a hard-fought battle pitting Zulu courage and numbers against British stolidity and firepower.

Title: Red Star/White Star Berlin '44
GM: Jeff Lawrence
Type: Miniatures
Description: April 22nd 1944....Combat Command B 9th US Armored enters Berlin from the West and meets only elements of The Irish Guards who arrived on the 21st."Where the Hell are the Germans?" General Patton exclaims. Brigadier J.O.E. Vandeleur steps down from his Humber and answers, "It seems they are waiting for us to take them all Prisoner. Anyway, you must now know the Russians are to the East side of Berlin and still trying to push through." George replies, "so we beat the Commie Bastards here eh! What have they said on the Radio?" There has been no traffic at all, but I would bet they know we are here Ole Boy," J.O.E. offers. Patton growls, "Hell I don't like it, so we better dig in and be ready." Well it seems the wrong side got into Berlin 1st. So what happens next? Will the Germans fight, and if so who? Who will the Soviets attack? It is your move.
